FRIDAY 2 JANUARY

Rohan Somasekaran / Dya Singh Band collaboration [world jazz]

Open 6.30pm. Band 7.30pm-11pm

With great improvisations and strong grooves this will be a great band to kick off the New Year with something just a little bit different.

The BJC is proud to present a special collaboration from members of the Dya Singh band and local jazz pianist, Rohan Somasekaran. The Dya Singh band is well known on the world music scene. Parvyn Singh adds a more jazz/contemporary feel to this traditional Indian music. Parvyn Kaur Singh (Vocals), Josh Bennett (Guitar & Dilruba), Dheeraj Shrestha (Tablas), and Rohan Somasekaran (Piano).

SATURDAY 3 JANUARY

Sailin' with the John Bringetto Quintet [swing/mainstream]

Open 6.30pm. Band 7.30pm-11pm

John Bringetto - trumpet, Kevin Roadley-Brooker - guitar, John Reeves- piano, Greg Gottlieb - double bass, Rich Seymour - drums John Bringetto has played trumpet and flugelhorn with Stan Kenton, Nancy Wilson and BB King to name but a few. After three decades of success in the music business, John and his wife Amanda bought a 41' yacht and have been sailin' the world ever since! Ten years of cruising around the world and jamming with musicians from many cultures has led him to moor here in Brisbane, performing one very special concert at the BJC with some new found local friends.

SUNDAY 4 JANUARY

Alan Western and the Jazz Gang [swing / vocal jazz]

Open 12.30pm. Band 1.30pm-4pm

Just the right mixture of jazz, pep and personality to kick-start the New Year. Over the past 20 years his great vocals and never-failing good humour have made Alan Western one of Brisbane Jazz Club's favourite performers, so come and enjoy a bright, swinging musical start to 2009 with Big Al and his gang - Yvonne Anthony: piano, Amby Dowdeswell: bass, Jim Howard: drums and "Pazul" himself - Paul Gibens: reeds. Listen, dance or just watch the boats go by on the laziest Sunday afternoon of the year!
